May the Faith be with You

This Sunday marks the 4th day of May. While it may not mean much to you, there are some Star Wars fans out there that beg to differ. Based on the iconic saying "May the force be with you," enthusiasts have coined the day, "May the 4th be with you!"

Well, we're adding something more this weekend to some special young adults... It is confirmation weekend and we are celebrating as we encourage these followers of Christ as they grow in their faith. "May the Faith be with you," is our prayer for those who would believe and place their trust and hope in the One Who is out of this world. Come worship with us and give God the glory for all that He has done!

Calling all middle and high school students! This Wednesday (6-7:30pm) we'll be meeting to finish our study through the book of Daniel. In this study we've looked at the story of four young Israelites who were faced with a choice: remain faithful followers in a foreign land or bow before an empire that hated God. This week we'll take a look and reflect on how our faithfulness to God during hard times can positively impact others. This year has flown by and we only have two more weeks before we take a break for the summer. If you haven't joined yet, or know someone you could invite, now is a great time!

Church Members are invited to the special voters' meeting to vote on the motion of removal of a Board Member at New Hope on May 4th, at 10:15am, following the worship service. Update: Cancelled in email on May 2nd.
